SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

- FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.
- SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.
- THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.
- FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.
- No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.
- See and get it, all druggists.

GIRLHOOD, WOMANHOOD AND MOTHERHOOD

Are Revivac, Regulated and Restored by the Pelvic Catarrh Remedy Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. E. C. Beryl.

Mrs. E. C. Beryl, 606 Diamond Street, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I feel well, never felt better; thanks for your attention and Pe-ru-na. I will be glad to do all I can in the way of advancing the sale of your valuable medicine. I do think Pe-ru-na the best medicine I have tried at any time. Since I began taking Pe-ru-na we have never been without it."

Read what an elderly woman says—a woman who has passed through all the phases, crises and experiences of girlhood, womanhood and motherhood: "I really believe that every woman in the world ought to have Pe-ru-na on hand all the time; for, if she gets tired, Pe-ru-na refreshes her; if she gets nervous, it soothes her; if despondent, it cheers and invigorates. It is a panacea for all irregularities of her monthly periods. It is a constant friend to the expectant mother; a never-failing stand-by to the nursing mother, both for herself and for her child, and finally when the change of life comes on, no medicine on earth is of equal efficacy to the woman in this critical period. Surely Pe-ru-na is the woman's friend."

That catarrh has any relation to barrenness in women is surprising to many. It is one of the mysteries of catarrh. This insidious disease penetrates to every organ of the body. Mrs. L. M. Griffith, of Cambridge, Neb., says: "Your medicine did me a wonderful amount of good. I cured me of barrenness. I am thirty years old and had never borne any children, but since beginning your medicine I gave birth to a ten-pound baby girl. She is now six months old, and weighs twenty-five pounds. My friends were all surprised. Some would not believe it until they came to see me. My husband says he never saw such a change in anyone as there was in me after I had taken three or four bottles of Pe-ru-na. I am stronger than I have been since I was quite young. God bless you and your medicine forever."

Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., for free catarrh book.

Additional Brandenburg.

Col. Bennett H. Young made one of the very tenderest eulogies for Kentucky and the imperishable glory of the South, that was delivered during the reunion. He referred to Louisville's splendid monument erected by the Confederacy, with those sublime words on it, "Our Confederate Dead." We as Kentuckians are proud of it. We are proud to know we have cared for your dead as well as our own. Our hearts swell, our eyes are dim as we think of those who died in prison away from mother, wife and sister and sweetheart. They died bravely, nobly and would not take the oath of allegiance, but spurned the offers of their captors. Our tears flow as freely as in the sixties when we reflect.

No man's address at the reunion was more feeling, more eloquent, more patriotic, more candid or tender than our great southern editor, Henry Watterson. He was introduced as American's greatest editor. Don't forget he lives in Kentucky, the home of the Clays, Marshalls, Breckenridges, Buckners, Blackburns, Carlises, Lindsays, Knotts all illustrious, but alas, divided and apart in political sentiment and opinion. Mr. Watterson says he is ready to go to his account when ever the Lord calls him—"Oh, no, please Mr. Watterson, please don't go until Kentucky is out of the mire!"
